Second Day, 1st March. Racegoers were especially favoured to-day as far as the weather was concerned, the sun shining brightly throughout the afternoon, and the air was particularly mild and genial. The fair Two lengths between second and third. Time, & sex mustered in much stronger force than yesterday, and as the sport provided was of a first rate description we can fully endorse the opinion expressed to us by one of the Stewards that it was the most enjoyable day's racing he had ever seen in Hougkong: The course had improved considerably since yesterday, and we could promenade about in the paddock with some degree of comfort as compared with the mudlarking we were then compelled to indulge in. The ball was opened shortly after one o'clock with the Sourry Stakes, a six furlongs sprint, in humoured with a walk back to the post with RISKS. which alf a dozen competitors sported silk.
